Lawyers' Association to Hold a Meeting and Give Its Verdict on the Candidates for Supreme Court Justices.

FRIENDS ARE ALL AT WORK.

Strenuous efforts are being made by the friends of the candidates named for the three vacancies on the bench of the Supreme Court to secure the inforsement of the Bar Association.

There is an earnest desire on the part other citizens also to have the Bar Association give expression to its views of the seven candidates presented as fit to wear the silken robes of a Supreme Justices Hall and Keener have had only a week's actual experience on the bench of this Court. One made a good record many years ago in the less important City Court. The other is re-nowned as an instructor in law at Combia, but his weight as a practical lawyer has never been ascertained.

Justice Steckler's Record.

Justice Alfred Steckler has been in the limelight of public scrutiny as a Justice for nearly a year. His decisions in many important cases have been published, and the general expression is one of matisfaction with him on the bench.

Vernon M. Davis won distinction as en industrious, faithful and upright pub-Mc prosecutor, and he has won a large practice since retiring from office in the more intricate class of cases.

Mittle is known of the fitness for judicial honors of Edward Everett Mc-Call and Edward B. Amend, Tammany candidates, or of John De Witt Warner, who, with Mr. Amend and Justice Steckler, was nominated by the Greater New York Democracy.

The voters want the benefit of the mature and expert judgment of the Bar Association on the relative fitness of these seven candidates.

Meet To-Morrow Night.

Sitas B. Brownell, secretary of the Bar Association, said to-day that a meeting of the Bar Association would be held to-morrow evening, but he could not tell what action would be taken.

One thing voters are congratulated upon by eminent lawyers, that there is no scandal connected with the name of either candidate and all are respectable and able.
